On August 26, 1969, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] that a spokesman for CUCA had that day announced a moratorium on work stoppages as "an act of good faith," during negotiations for more construction jobs for Negroes. The group warned, however, that "direct action activities will be resumed and accelerated" if an acceptable job program is not put into effect at the end of negotiations.

On that same day, the above source advised that the Reverend Ralph Abernathy, President, SCLC, in speaking before the Illinois State AFL-CIO convention in the Chicago Conrad Hilton Hotel, stated the SCLC is determined that thousands of Negroes will be admitted to building trade unions. No incidents resulted from Abernathy's speech.

On August 28, 1969, this same source advised that on August 27, 1969, the AFL-CIO meeting adopted a resolution expressing moral support for black youths seeking employment opportunities and training program to open job opportunities. Shortly thereafter, a group of approximately one dozen Negroes representing CUCA entered the convention area and mounted the dais. This group had as its chief spokesmen the Reverend C. T. Vivian, Chief Coordinator of the Coalition, Robert Lucas, another CUCA leader, and Meredith Gilbert, the Coalition's representative from the Lawndale People's Planning and Action Council. Vivian, Gilbert, and Lucas then leveled charges of racism at the delegates and Gilbert pushed aside the 82 year old president of the Illinois labor group, Reuben G. Soderstrom, to obtain the use of the microphone.

ENCLOSURE

COALITION FOR UNITED COMMUNITY ACTION

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Shouting between the CUCA and labor representatives resulted and the convention was rapidly adjourned.

No arrests occurred and a session to discuss differences and plans to implement the demands of CUCA was scheduled for August 28, 1969, at the Sherman House, Chicago.

On August 28, 1969, this same source advised that on August 27, 1969, leaders of CUCA, including Reverend Vivian and David Reed, held a joint press conference along with leaders of the Blackstone Rangers and Disciples, local Negro south side youth gangs, wherein they alleged that police harrassment and brutality of the Disciples has increased since the Disciples united with CUCA to protest alleged racial discrimination in the building trades industry.

They claimed that six members of the Disciples were to go before Chicago Police Department Deputy Superintendent James Rochford on either August 28, or August 29, 1969.

CUCA representatives have met before this week with Rochford to demand action on police brutality charges. At that time, Rochford denied the charges and told CUCA that if they desired they could take their charges to either the Police Department's Internal Inspection Division, the Cook County States Attorney's Office, or to the United States Attorney's Office.

Copies of this memorandum are being furnished to the United States Attorney, United States Secret Service, both Chicago, Illinois, and Region I, 113th Military Intelligence Group, Evanston, Illinois.

NEGROES CRITICAL OF APPOINTMENT
QUENTIN LANE, WHITE MALE AS
DIRECTOR, CHATTANOOGA MODEL CITIES
PROGRAM, CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE
JULY, 1969
RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to Knoxville Memorandum dated August 22, 1969, in captioned matter.

The Chattanooga Times, a daily publication, Chattanooga, Tennessee, in the August 25, 1969, issue, reported a meeting was held at the Wesley Chapel Community Church, Wilson Avenue, Avondale, Chattanooga, Tennessee, Sunday night, August 24, 1969. This meeting was sponsored by the Action Coordinating Council (ACC), which is reported to be a branch of the Southern Christian Leadership Council (SCLC). Reverend Herbert Hoover Wright, Pastor of the Wesley Chapel Community Church, is President of the ACC. Some 700 Negroes representing the ACC, Community Development Administration Board, Black Activists, Chattanooga, Tennessee, and other Negro organizations were present to hear Reverend Wright and Reverend C. K. Steele, First Vice President, SCLC.

Reverend Steele and Reverend Wright reportedly left Chattanooga, August 21, 1969, to visit the Reverend Ralph David Abernathy, President, SCLC, Chicago, Illinois, to discuss racial conditions at Chattanooga, Tennessee, and determine what action or support SCLC would take in connection with the recent appointment of Quentin Lane, white male, as Director of Chattanooga Model Cities Programs.

ENCLOSURE

ENCLOSURE

NEGROES CRITICAL OF APPOINTMENT
QUENTIN LANE, WHITE MALE AS
DIRECTOR, CHATTANOOGA MODEL CITIES
PROGRAM, CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE
JULY, 1969

The news article reported Reverend Steele told those present that Reverend Abernathy sent a message of grave concern about the struggles of the Black people in Chattanooga, and assured them SCLC would do whatever they could to push the struggle and fighting of the poor people of Chattanooga. Reverend Steele, in speaking of awakening the Americans to the needs of the Black and poor people, that "if the resolution is not one of love and non-violence, then it will be one of love and violence."

Reverend Wright advised the group that a resolution denouncing Lane's appointment was to have been delivered to Chattanooga City Hall, Friday, August 22, 1969, but had been delayed until Tuesday, August 26, 1969, when the Chattanooga Mayor and City Commissioners hold their weekly Commission Meeting. The Chattanooga City Commissioners hold a regularly scheduled closed meeting at 10:00 A. M., every Tuesday morning and an open Commission Meeting at 2:00 P. M., Tuesday's.

The news article reported some 75 others present at the Sunday night meeting marched from the church to the Model Cities Program Headquarters, following the Sunday night meeting. This article reported they disbanded and no incidents or disorder was reported.

The Chattanooga News-Free Press, a daily publication, Chattanooga, Tennessee, on August 25, 1969, reported that the marchers wrote, "Black Power," and "Let Rap (Brown) rap," on the doors of the Model Cities Program Building in chalk. This article also reported copies of the "Black Fist" were left at the doors of the Model Cities Program Building.

The article reported Reverend Wright as saying several possible courses of action were being considered. He stated the group might pack Model Cities Program Offices and Chattanooga City Commissioners' Offices so full they won't be able to meet or they may picket the Model Cities Program Offices.

NEGROES CRITICAL OF APPOINTMENT
QUENTIN LANE, WHITE MALE AS
DIRECTOR, CHATTANOOGA MODEL CITIES
PROGRAM, CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE
JULY. 1969

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] reported on August 25, 1969, that a number of copies of the "Black Fist, August, 1969, Volume One, Number 6," had been distributed in Chattanooga over the past weekend, some being left at the Model Cities Program Building. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] on this date stated that some unknown person had broken a large plate glass window at Chattanooga City Hall Building at approximately 4:00 A. M., August 25, 1969. [REDACTED] b7c

[REDACTED] the plate glass window had been broken by a newspaper delivery boy when he accidentally hit the window while throwing a bundle of newspapers to the front entrance of Chattanooga City Hall.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] had advised that some 200 Negroes representing ACC, Community Development Administration Board, Black Activists, and other Negro organizations, planned a brief march of protest to Chattanooga City Hall and to the Mayor and Chattanooga City Commission Meeting scheduled for 2:00 P. M., August 26, 1969.
This protest would be in regard to the appointment of Lane as Director, Model Cities Program. He advised he did not expect any violence, riots, or racial incidents.

Confidential Knoxville Informants, who have furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the protests and meetings of the ACC, Community Development Administration Board, Black Activists, and other Negro organizations and leaders in Chattanooga, were planned as a peaceful, sincere protest over the appointment of a white man to the position of Director, Model Cities Program. They advised that this program relates to 80% of the Negroes in Chattanooga, and the four top positions have been filled with white men, with the Director at a salary of $16,500 and three assistants, at $12,500 each. The Negroes feel that a Negro or Negroes in these top four positions would be more aware of the Negro problems and needs, would be in a better position to speak for the Negroes, and in addition, that such good paying positions should be awarded to qualified Negroes.

NEGROES CRITICAL OF APPOINTMENT
QUENTIN LANE, WHITE MALE AS
DIRECTOR, CHATTANOOGA MODEL CITIES
PROGRAM, CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE
JULY, 1969

They advised the Negro citizens feel more strongly and bitter about this situation than any other racial situation in Chattanooga, in the past year or more. These informants do not believe the leaders of the Negro organizations or the responsible Negro citizens will promote, condone, or participate in any riots, acts of violence, or racial incidents. However, they report some of the younger Negroes might become so bitter or worked up over these protests, they could individually resort to some acts of violence.

Re: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE
SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP
CONFERENCE
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNISM

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

It was reported by memorandum dated September 3, 1969, that Dr. Ralph Abernathy, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), would speak at the National Baptist Convention, Miami, Florida, September 5, 1969.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 4, 1969, that Dr. Abernathy, his wife, and a Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Johnson arrived in Miami, Florida, from Atlanta, Georgia, on Eastern Air Lines, Flight 307, at 2:58 P. M., on September 4, 1969.

The September 6, 1969, edition of the "Miami Herald," a Miami, Florida daily newspaper, reported in an article by Adon Taft, "Herald" religious editor, that Dr. Abernathy, in a speech to the Progressive National Baptist Convention, in Miami Beach, Florida, on September 5, 1969, reported plans to organize massive resistance to the draft by blacks. He said the newly-formed "peace department" of SCLC will begin "to work with young people to educate them on the issues and to train them to stand on their own feet and say 'no' when they are drafted." He asked black churches to serve as training centers for draft resistance.

Abernathy said he hoped the end result of this effort would be to halt the draft and the war because "war discriminates against the black and the poor." Abernathy said, "Our churches must not behave as the white churches did during the days of slavery, nor like the churches in Germany in the days of Hitler."

He said to end the draft is not the only way black churches can help to halt the war. His plan urges immediate withdrawal of United States troops from Vietnam and pressure to have Red China admitted to the United Nations so "that peace can be negotiated at the conference table."

Re: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE
SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

CONFIDENTIAL

The second plank in his "challenge" is for black churches to drastically step up financial support and participation in the revolutionary activities of SCLC. He said this would be the greatest tribute that could be paid to Martin Luther King. It would be a "continuation of his effort to redeem the soul of America."

Abernathy also asked his fellow Baptists to support wholeheartedly the second chapter of the "Poor Peoples Campaign" which calls for free food stamps, creation of jobs, more extensive medical aid, and housing for the poor. Abernathy also expressed support for reparation demands made on white churches. He said he would make several appeals for money from white churches.

It was also reported that Abernathy said he would ask help in establishing SCLC chapters in 12 major cities where there are none at the present time. These would include New York City, Houston, and Seattle. Abernathy also praised the Progressive National Baptist Convention for adopting a resolution allowing to fight the appointment of Judge Clement F. Haynsworth to the U. S. Supreme Court on the grounds he is a racist.

Abernathy concluded his remarks by predicting there will be "a great deal of unrest on campuses this fall because administrations have not done enough to meet the demands of the students, particularly in recruiting black students for white colleges and in the offering of black history courses."

The September 6, 1969 edition of the "Miami News", a Miami, Florida daily newspaper, reported on Dr. Abernathy's appearance before the National Progressive Baptist Convention. It reported that this organization represents 700,000 Negroes in a little less than a thousand churches and is sometimes referred to as the militant wing of black Baptists. It reported that 3,000 delegates were present for the convention at Miami Beach. Abernathy requested strong moral and financial support for SCLC as SCLC is the "church in action."

Re: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE
SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

CONFIDENTIAL

It is reported that Abernathy said he believed in Black Power "when it is interpreted properly." He said lately its interpretation as violence has frightened millions of "our white brothers and sisters and they no longer support the movement." He said, properly defined, Black Power is economic and political power.

The source reported on September 5, 1969, that Dr. Abernathy and the three other members of his party had reservations to depart Miami, Florida, on Eastern Air Lines, Flight 278, for Atlanta, Georgia, at 10:35 A. M., on September 6, 1969.

The title of this matter is being changed to record its new name, captioned above, as revealed through the July 15, 1969, issue of the "Seattle Post Intelligencer," a daily local Seattle, Washington newspaper.

Re Seattle letter to the Bureau, dated 7/15/69, entitled "Negro Voters League of the State of Washington, aka; RM."

The above-mentioned news article revealed that the Negro Voters' League (in Seattle) had changed its name to the Black Voters' League (BVL) and had joined the Southern Christian Leadership Conference as an affiliate. LLOYD JACKSON continues as Chairman.

UACB, the Seattle Division will conduct a preliminary inquiry to determine the new format of the organization, if any. When the preliminary investigation has been completed, dissemination will be made to the interested agencies at which time they will be advised of the new name.

WACHTEL continued that "he" (GARMENT) said that if there is a project and Health, Education and Welfare makes a grant (apparently to the M. L. KING Memorial Center) that some publicity must be given to it. WACHTEL said he replied that he did not expect to get a brown envelope under the table but that he also said "don't expect ribbon cuttings"

WACHTEL said he told "him" (GARMENT) that they want such things, as when they are in St. Louis on fund raising, as 4 or 5 Republicans to give money; that this is how "they help us privately". WACHTEL continued "Or to get us a good chairman for a dinner". WACHTEL said he is not sure that GARMENT is as knowledgeable as BURKE MARSHALL might have been.

WACHTEL also asked LEVISON if he thought he was still being tapped and LEVISON said he would work under that assumption.

The information concerning WACHTEL's contact with GARMENT (ph) is reported administratively because NY does not know the identity of this individual. A copy of this LHM is being furnished WFO for its information.

Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)
Internal Security - Communist

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, learned on September 14, 1969, that on that date Harry Wachtel and Stanley Levison agreed that they have to persuade Coretta King, wife of Martin Luther King, Jr., deceased President of the SCLC, to read a few pertinent things in order to fill her in on the present situation in civil rights. 114

The source also learned on September 14, 1969, that Levison contacted Coretta King on that date and furnished her a list of material she should read such as the speech she made at Harvard University, an article in the Christmas (1968) issue of "Good Housekeeping" magazine, and an article in the January issue of "Playboy" magazine. LEVISON, alluding to an interview Coretta King would have, said this material would help her when she is questioned. Levison said she should say that she has been deeply involved in the preparation of her book and that, if she is asked a question she is not up on, it would be better to state that she is not up on it than to slide around it. NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the National Lawyers Guild:

"National Lawyers Guild

- "1. Cited as a Communist front.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149.)
- "2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.'
(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally related September 17, 1950.)
- "3. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection.'
(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)"

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Bishop

DATE: October 2, 1969

FROM : M. A. Jones

SUBJECT: WILLIE BOLDEN, STATE FIELD SECRETARY
SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCEBACKGROUND:

A telephone call on the afternoon of October 2, 1969, from captioned individual was referred by the Director's Office to SA [redacted] of the Crime Records Division. Mr. Bolden advised he was calling from the Mount Hope Baptist Church, Zebulon, Georgia (telephone number 567-3413). He said that on October 1, 1969, he attended a meeting at the Court House in Zebulon, Ga., which meeting was to establish a biracial committee to ease the tensions in Zebulon. Upon exiting from the Court House, Mr. Bolden and other members of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) were confronted by 35 to 40 white people and Bolden believes the only reason his group was not assaulted was because the group was escorted by the Georgia State Police. Mr. Bolden advised that his group has another meeting at the Court House today and he fears possible violence might arise due to the occurrence yesterday. He asked for FBI protection. Mr. Bolden was advised that the FBI is an investigative agency and does not afford protection in such matters but rather this type protection would be the responsibility of local police authorities. He was advised if any matter under FBI jurisdiction came to his attention, he should notify the Atlanta Office of the FBI.

INFORMATION IN BUFILES:

BUfiles reflect that since May, 1969, Zebulon, Georgia, has been the scene of racial demonstrations concerning local school problems. Willie Bolden, born December 7, 1938, at Sumter, South Carolina, is well known to the Bureau as active in civil rights matters and SCLC activities. He has been employed by and traveled considerably for the SCLC since approximately 1965. He has led demonstrations of Negro residents in Zebulon, Georgia, on several occasions.

Atlanta Office advised it is fully aware of civil rights activities of Bolden and SCLC in Zebulon and has been keeping Bureau advised of all pertinent developments. Atlanta advised Bureau re above noted confrontation by teletype dated 10/1/69.

THE NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of January 2, 1957, to supersede Guide published on May 14, 1951, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following information concerning "The National Lawyers Guild:"

1. Cited as a Communist front.

(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311, on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149).
2. Cited as a Communist front which "is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations and controlled unions" and which "since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents." (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally released September 17, 1950.)
3. "To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the  National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection."

(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91).

On August 14, 1969, The Atlanta Constitution, daily Atlanta, Georgia, newspaper, published an article captioned "SCLC Okays Anti-Draft Plan." This article referred to a speech on August 13, 1969, delivered to the twelfth annual Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) convention, Charleston, South Carolina, by Rev. Thomas E. Kilgore, described as President of the American Baptist Convention (also Parliamentarian of SCLC), from Los Angeles, California. According to this article, Kilgore proposed that SCLC create a "department for peace" in order that it might give effective draft evasion counseling to young men. Ralph D. Abernathy, President, SCLC, was reported to have approved of Kilgore's proposal and was quoted as saying "It's the only way to put an end to the war and violence."

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam, and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anticommunist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of July 24, 1968, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

A source has advised that the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. From an initial ideological posture of "participatory democracy," the current line of the national leadership reveals an adherence to Marxism-Leninism. Michael Klonsky, National Secretary, in March, 1969, called for the building of a revolutionary Marxist-Leninist movement. The program of SDS has moved from involvement in civil rights struggles to an anti-Vietnam war position and finally to its present advocacy of an anti-imperialist line, linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America, with the black liberation movement in the United States. China, Vietnam and Cuba are regarded as countries which are leading the world-wide struggles against United States imperialism. On the other hand, SDS regards the Soviet Union as an imperialist power and does not support the policies of that country.

SDS maintains a National Office in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. Its official paper "New Left Notes" reflects the line of the national leadership and program adopted at meetings of the National Council and National Interim Committee (NIC). Three national officers and a NIC of eleven members are elected each year during a June National Convention.

SDS Regional Offices and university and college chapters elect delegates to National Council meetings wherein program and ideology are debated, but each Region and chapter is autonomous in nature and is free to carry out independent policy and programs reflective of local conditions.

W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. These delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble of the constitution, are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-Communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people."

Over the Labor Day weekend, 1965, the DCA held a conference in Chicago, Illinois, and a new slate of officers was elected to the National Executive Committee (NEC) of the DCA. Since Labor Day, 1965 identities of those serving of the NEC has varied;

On May 3, 1965, a source advised that on June 30, 1964, a group of young people who attended the founding convention of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) met in Chicago and adopted a statement of purpose and constitution forming the DCC as an affiliate of the National DCA.

A second source advised on May 1, 1967, that DCA chartered clubs in the Chicago area are the West Side DCC and the North Side DCC, neither of which currently maintain a headquarters. There is no central headquarters for the DCC and there are no unchartered clubs in this area.

The second source advised that the majority of DCC members are also members of the CP.

During the past year DCC activity has been almost nonexistent.
